Meet the team

NICOLAS LEMIRE

Territory Manager

I've been a territory manager for Ritchie Bros. France since 2014. My role is to advise my customers on the sale and purchase of equipment. I offer them expertise in determining the value of their equipment with my precise knowledge of the market.

Ritchie Bros. is like a supermarket for equipment – you'll find all types of equipment in one place. We also offer the service of taking care of everything, and all in complete transparency.

My advise is to spend time on our inspection reports, everything is detailed in there: the qualities but also the defects of the equipment. Also, watch the inspection videos and if you can, go to one of our sites to inspect the material for yourself.

Finally, I would say: check out the results of our previous auctions to get an idea of the selling prices.
